

Clips

From page A8

Tasty results

A local catering business is one of five finalists in a national contest.

Jody's Pantry Catering was selected as a finalist in the 2010 Achievement in Catering Excellence Awards for the East Coast Region Caterer of the Year.

Jody and Richard Wimer are the owners of the catering company. They began their food service careers through their ownership of the historic Village Inn Restaurant in Harlansburg.

"The Ace is a premiere award in our industry," said the Wimers. "We are honored to be a finalist among such prestigious competition."

Winners will be announced March 8 in Las Vegas during the opening ceremonies of the 2010 Cater-source Events Solution conference and trade show, which is attended by more than 4,000 catering professionals.